

LOCALLY-DRIVEN CO-DEVELOPMENT OF PLANT-BASED VALUE CHAINS TOWARDS A MORE SUSTAINABLE AFRICAN FOOD SYSTEM WITH HEALTHIER DIETS AND EXPORT POTENTIAL

Developing new sustainable value chains to produce and distribute diverse and healthy foods from African farms to local and export markets.

IMPLEMENTING PARTNERS

South Africa

- University of Pretoria
- Delphius Technologies & Consultancy

Norway

- Nofima As

Uganda

- Makerere University
- Uganda Manufacturers Association
- Food and Nutrition Solutions Limited
- Kulika Uganda

Finland

- VTT Technical Research Centre of Finland Ltd
- University of Helsinki

Ethiopia

- Addis Ababa University
- Organisation for Social Science Research in Eastern and Southern Africa
- Amhara Regional Agricultural Research Institute
- Guts Agro Industry Plc

France

- Institut National d'Etudes Supérieures Agronomiques de Montpellier

Kenya

- Chuka University
- University of Nairobi Enterprises and Services Limited
- Africa Harvest Biotech Foundation International

Belgium

- Puratos nv/sa

For more information visit: www.innofoodafrica.com

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 862170